Adoption Stories

Meet Olive: (submitted by Natalie Truman)

My boyfriend and I adopted Olive about 6 months ago, and she's made our first house together feel like a home. When we first picked her up from her foster home, she was shy and hid under the couch, but I knew right away she was my kitty. Nowadays she's anything but shy - she's super sassy, playful, and a cuddle bug (always on her terms, of course), and I'm so thankful for HART for bringing us together!

Meet Cheddar: (submitted by Jennifer Grove)

I adopted Cheddar after losing my older orange kitty a few months before. I had no intention of adopting a kitten, but after learning from my friends at Abrams & Weakley that Cheddar's brother has been adopted, and he was lonely, I visited him at the store. He was so affectionate! When I left, he ran to the door and put his little paw up to the glass and cried. That's all it took! So grateful for HART and all they do for our feline friends.

Meet Cheddar: (submitted by Nicole Shenk)

We adopted Cheddar (then Marmalade, on left) new years eve of 2021. As you can see him and his older brother (Archy, right) get along so well! Cheddar is so playful, very mischievous and the biggest love bug cuddler there is! He demands affection constantly! We love him!

Meet Evan and Teddy: (submitted by Kerry Robbins)

Evan (dark mackerel pattern), joined our family in late 2020. We felt he would benefit from a brother. Teddy (orange mackerel pattern), joined our family in late 2022. Evan will be 3 in April, and Teddy 1 in August. Despite Evan's initial reluctance to having Teddy in the house, they've quickly grown to love one another.

HART is currently running several fundraisers to help raise money to aid in our mission of helping rescue cats and kittens. Our fundraisers are published on our HART Facebook page. Please check us out and Like us on Facebook.
